Veterans Day

It seems there is a day for everything. There is Cheeseburger Day, Hot Dog Day, Grandparents Day, and even National Pet

Day to name a few. Some are obviously more important than others, however Veterans Day, celebrated on November 11th, should be near the top of the list of celebrated days.

Veterans Day, originally known as Armistice Day, was established on November 11, 1919 commemorating the armistice, or WWI cease-fire. The armistice went into effect on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918 and declared a legal holiday in 1938 to honor veterans of World War I. Congress passed a bill after the Korean War, in 1954, to change Armistice Day to Veterans Day to honor all American military veterans not just those serving in WWI.

Our military veterans have dedicated a portion of their lives to the defense of our country and far too many have made the ultimate sacrifice. Our veterans have endured the hardships of family separation, missing birthdays and graduations, and celebrating anniversaries and holidays whenever they can. They certainly are a deserving group of people honored on this very special day.

Our Community will proudly post our flags to honor all Veterans on this special day.

When you see a veteran, say "thank you" to let them know you appreciate their sacrifices.

GOH Survey

In the last Newsletter, I asked for YOUR support with a small anonymous survey to gather some data for a new article I wanted to write about our Community. I am very disappointed that I did not receive Community support. Only ONE response indicated there is a Veteran in their household and only ONE response indicated there is not a veteran in their household. So no new article for this Newsletter.

Constitutional Amendments

As you are aware, the 88th Texas Legislature passed a total of 14 proposed amendments that are now on the ballot. Since the adoption of our current Texas Constitution in 1876, the legislature has proposed 700 amendments and we, the people, have approved 74% of them.

Early Voting

October 23 to November 3

With 14 proposals on the current ballot, I have been looking for some sort of reference to help me make an informed decision. Here is what I have found.

Texas Legislative Council

"The mission of the Texas Legislative Council is to provide professional, nonpartisan service and support to the

For each proposed amendment, this publication contains the ballot language, an analysis, and the text of the joint resolution proposing the amendment.
